Prayer Requests continued ...

From Peggy Matts I have definitely felt the power of prayer over the last week and thank everyone for praying for my Mother, Louann Andrews. She has been under Hospice care who allowed her to stay in familiar surroundings as she was treated. She had a sudden turnaround today with normal oxygen readings and not on quarantine any more. Her 90th birthday is 13 January and I would appreciate it if you could send her a card. She will enjoy them. Her address: 5790 Denlinger Road, Apt 412, Dayton, OH 45426.

Please keep all those mourning the loss of Lynn Corbitt in your prayers. There will be a "walk through" visitation followed by a service at 1PM, Jan. 13th, at Kindred Funeral Home in Englewood. The service may be viewed online also.

From Barb Carpenter: Please continue to pray for Max, my brother - in-law. He was in quarantine for Covid at the nursing home but was taken to the hospital early this morning with difficulty breathing. His Oxygen levels are low. Please pray he will feel God's presence in his lonely time. He is a man of faith and still has a wonderful mind at 91. He and my sister spent more than 20 years in the mission field in Papua New Guinea.

From Peggy: Pray for Jacqueline Bunke. She is having parathyroid surgery Monday, Jan. 4th in the outpatient department. Please pray for a successful surgery and outcome.

From Rachel and Leonard Werst: Prayers for our grandson Zach who has been diagnosed with Covid. He is doing better now but we worry. His entire family is quarantined. Thank you.

From Sue Rodriquez: My sister's friend, Tommy, in Texas, has been sent to a nursing home after discharge from the hospital and was apparently unable to participate in rehab. His wife, Shelia, is in a coma.

He was placed on a ventilator late this afternoon. UPDATE: From Jean Mahan: Continue to pray for Mike and Shari Coover. Mike is now under Hospice Care.

Thank you for your faithfulness in prayer as we stand by our families and friends and continue to intercede for healing and restoration for all who are suffering at this time.

From Barb Carpenter: My brother-in-law, Max, passed away peacefully in the hospital Jan.2nd from the effects of Covid. We are so thankful that he didn't linger, as his breathing was difficult and they were unable to raise his oxygen level. He wanted no extreme measures taken. He was very comfortable when he passed and was alert to the end. Thank you all for your prayers. I know he felt the love and prayers of family and his many friends, as well as from those he didn't know.

From Peggy: Please pray for Anna Carlisle who is having knee replacement on January 7th. UPDATE: From Sue Brown: Anna Carlisle's surgery went well today. Thank s for your prayers.

From Tim Stidham: For my son, daughter-in-law and grandchild. They have Covid. Also for an unnamed older couple that I helped out of restaurant today. The man was an invalid.

From Pastor Barry: Please pray for Bill Dillhoff's brother, Dave. He's been admitted to MVH with Covid and a blood clot. Pray for him and Bill.

From Leslie Godzik: Please pray for my Dad, Jay Jacoby. He tested positive for Covid and has been moved to a Covid wing at Danbury So far his only symptom is that he is tired.
